Providing Support and Reintegration Assistance
for our Veterans
and returning Troops

For God and Country Since 1919

WHO WE ARE

The war on terrorism has affected every city, town and neighborhood across America. Today, more than ever before, our friends, neighbors and relatives are being called to war as members of the National Guard and Reserves.

Families left at home while their loved ones are deployed often have to cope with household repairs and other emergencies that can become overwhelming, especially when their family member is away.

Legionnaires and members of The American Legion Family have “been there... done that.” We know the emotional pain, worry and loneliness caused by wartime deployments. We know the trauma of war firsthand, and the difficulties associated with keeping the home fires burning in our absence.

Since 1919, The American Legion has been committed to helping military veterans and their families.

Families of deployed service personnel that need help can call their local American Legion Post or the National Hotline @ 1-800 504-4098.

WELCOME HOME!

We attend and help organize Deployment and Homecoming events for the troops and their families, and once the troops return, our services are needed more than ever.

Many service members return home from deployment and are not properly advised of the benefits and services available to them such as:

- VA Benefits
- Medical Care
- Employment Assistance
- Education Assistance
- Home Loans
- Financial Assistance

Our service officers are there to get involved and provide assistance and follow-up, especially for severely disabled troops and their families. We provide assistance support and advocacy throughout their transition and reintegration from military service back into your community.

We will be here to support the Troop and their family while they are deployed, and we will continue to be here for them once they return home!
