

MICHIGAN LEADERSHIP COLLEGE COMMITTEE MEETING
September 14, 2007

The meeting of the Department Education and Scholarship Committee was called to order by Chairman Tom Brown at Boyne Highlands, Michigan, at 10:04 a.m. on September 14, 2007.

PRESENT: Committee members Carnie Jackson and Janice Roy, along with 15 guests

OLD BUSINESS: None

NEW BUSINESS: Chairman Jackson stated that Commander Williams wants Leadership College revamped. Attendance has continued to decline. It has been suggested that we hold the College at Fall and Spring Conference.

Meeting was opened for suggestions. It was suggested that members need to go through the chairs.

Charles Shackelford, 9th District, said we need to get the information about Leadership College all the way down to the posts. He also said it is important that the instructors know their subject.

Lyle Shanks, 4th District, said that some of the County Commanders in the 4th District are holding classes for the posts in their area. It is working well.

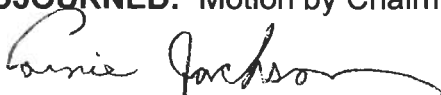

Darwin Krieger, 4th District, said County and District Commanders have to reach the posts. Department cannot do a thing with the post's cooperation.

Brett Holt, 8th District, said Department should be training the Zone Commanders and District officers on leadership. They should then go back to the posts in their districts and pass on what they have learned. It was suggested that we use the National Leadership College as an outline. Various classes were suggested by the members present.

Everett Meggitt, 19th District, said it was important to get all the information out. This will get more people involved.

Charles Shackelford, 9th District, said each class should be at least 30 minutes long. Should offer at least two classes.

ADJOURNED: Motion by Chairman Jackson to adjourn at 10:59 a.m. Motion carried.
